PROFILE

I was born in 2004 and graduated in 2023. I have gained experience in the fields of photography, illustration, and graphic design, during which I developed a strong interest and passion for the world of graphics, a field I find both complex and highly engaging.

I am characterized by strong listening skills, the ability to learn quickly, and determination. I have a natural aptitude for teamwork and achieving goals, qualities I have developed throughout my education and early professional experiences.

In my free time, I enjoy reading, crocheting, and sewing, and I am always listening to music, activities that stimulate my creativity and enrich my approach to work.

COMPETENCIES

I have strong time management and planning skills, which allow me to organize my schedule effectively and anticipate the best timing for any situation. I am highly punctual with both deadlines and appointments, and I am proficient in using various software thanks to my academic background and personal interest in technology. As an active listener, I value the opinions of others and use feedback to improve myself, often asking questions to ensure absolute clarity and avoid misunderstandings.

I am flexible and highly adaptable, able to adjust my approach to any situation while maintaining my identity and staying motivated to reach my goals. I possess significant operational autonomy and a quick learning curve when it comes to mastering new tasks. My collaborative nature and ability to listen to everyone's input make me a natural team player.

I believe in effective communication based on trust and respect; I can confidently express my views while remaining open to changing my mind if a better idea is presented. I also have excellent stress resistance, remaining calm and focused even under pressure to ensure work is completed to the highest standard. Finally, I maintain a strong proactive attitude and stay motivated when tackling any challenge, from the simplest tasks to the most complex objectives.
